THE PROCESSION TO NIGHT.-I. O. S. M.-By a notice in another column, it will be learned that the Order of the Sone of Malta will form in procession to night, and pass through our principal streets. This will be rather an unu susl performance, and will doubtless attrac very general attention. Starting but a short time ago in this city with a mere handful, we Extensive sale of Fine Furniture, learn that the order now numbers a great many of our most respectable and substantial citizens, a majority of whom will no doubt be seen to night. That a great deal of good has been done by the order, since its institution here we know, although no fare has been made about. That it will be the means of doing much more we cannot doubt. A cotemporary who is pusted, observes that the prime objects of the Order of Sons of Multa are Churity, in the broadest and best sense of the word, and the cultivation of fraternal and hindly feeling K.
